

Examples of good practice

Cleaning welding tools and robotic cells in the automotive industry instant results...

our solution enables you to instantly test cleaned tools and integrate them into the production process. This means less congestion in production, always flawless tools and the highest quality of your products.

without disassembly ...

cleaning robots welding arms, tools, tables and recesses - on the spot, without disassembly and without water and cleaners. Longer lifespan of devices and lower maintenance costs

Before

After

efficient and safe...

in a completely safe and effective way removes: epoxies, sprays, scissors and thermoforming pastes (copper, etc.), which enables the proper functioning of contact, fastening and moving segments.

Before

After

cleaned...

welding tool - after the cleaning possible immediate use in production, with no negative effects on operation or functions.

Examples of welding tools and robotic cells which could be cleaned with Dry Ice:

